

City of Onojo A Place Where Culture and Technology Accumulated Through Exchange

Onojo City possesses Mizuki Fortress and Ono-jo Fortress, built with advanced civil engineering technology. Cultural assets that speak to the technological and cultural exchange are spread throughout town, such as the Ushikubi Kiln site, which led ceramic industry in Kyushu with its sophisticated pottery technology, and the Zenichida Burial Mounds, which suggest ties with ironware production and the Chinese writing system.

